To the Stockholders:

In this annual report we shall show that the year 1962-1963 has been a year of progress and prosperity in this corporation. The usual high quality of the product was maintained, and competition has been successfully met. It was a year of achievements. Great strides forward have been made in all our departments. Even our unusually high standards have been surpassed as we confidence to the future. has been one of new improvements continue to strive

DEDICATION

To Mr. Robert Jardine, who in more than twenty-five years at Flintridge has been both a teacher and a friend to the students, we dedicate this LOG in gratitude and appreciation.

SENIORS

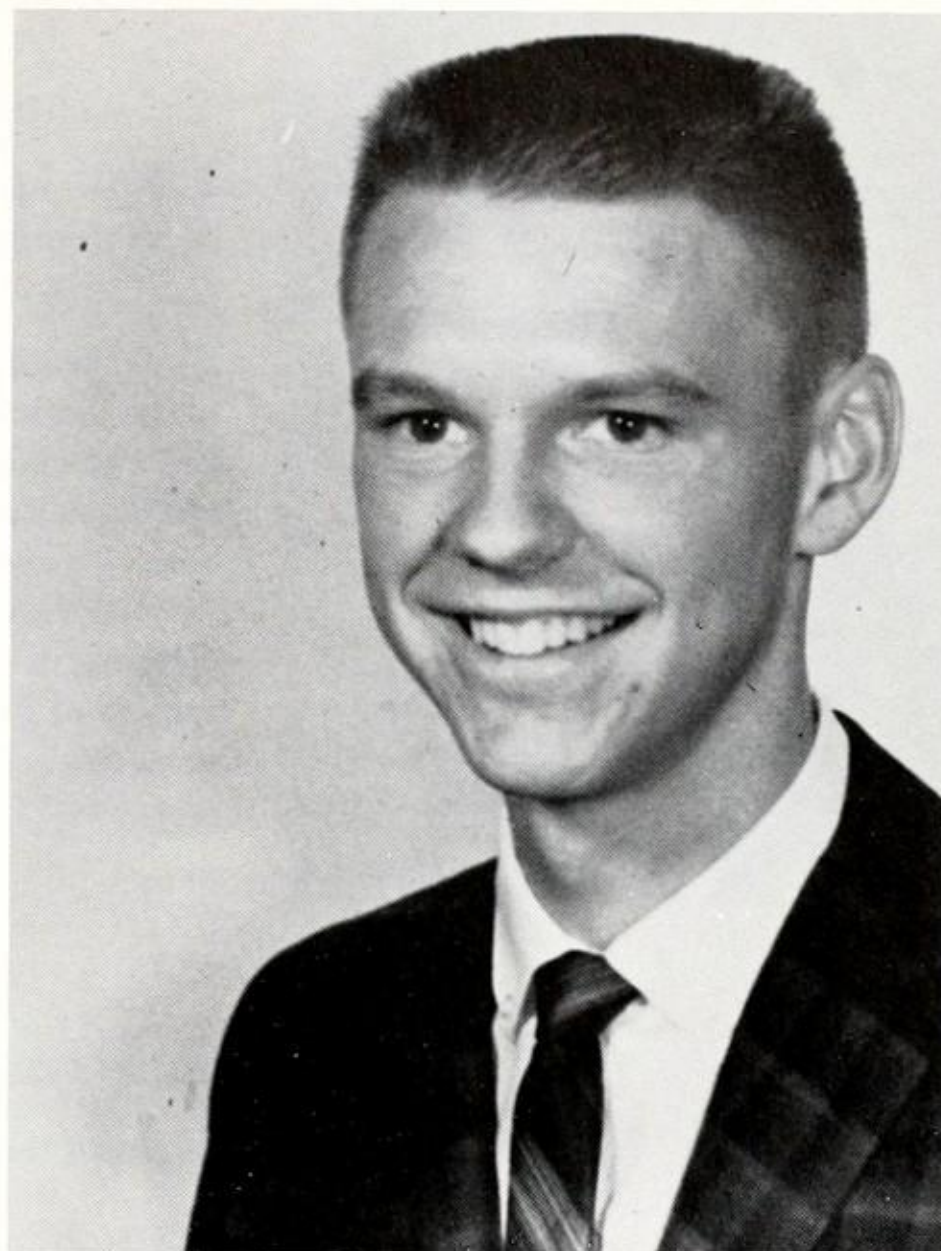

The members of the Senior class have placed themselves in the position of preferred stockholders during the last year by establishing certain precedents in dress as well as privileges. Examples include privileges granted in recognition of the maturity of the Senior class — the Senior Room and library stack privileges. Traditions in activities such as the annual tug of war and improvement of dress were also set. Thus, it is obvious that this year was a productive one for the preferred stockholders.

STEPHEN DEAN FISHER

*Words are like leaves: and where they most abound,
Much fruit of sense beneath is rarely found.*

—Pope

Steve has been president of his class in both his Junior and Senior years, and is also president of the Letterman's Club. He has worked as organizations editor of the LOG, and as a member of the Highlander Staff. Golfing, snow and water-skiing, and horseback riding are his favorite hobbies. Steve will attend Loma Linda University next year, and he plans to major in dentistry. His favorite pastimes are adding horns to his Jeep, restoring his Model T Ford, and just plain talking.

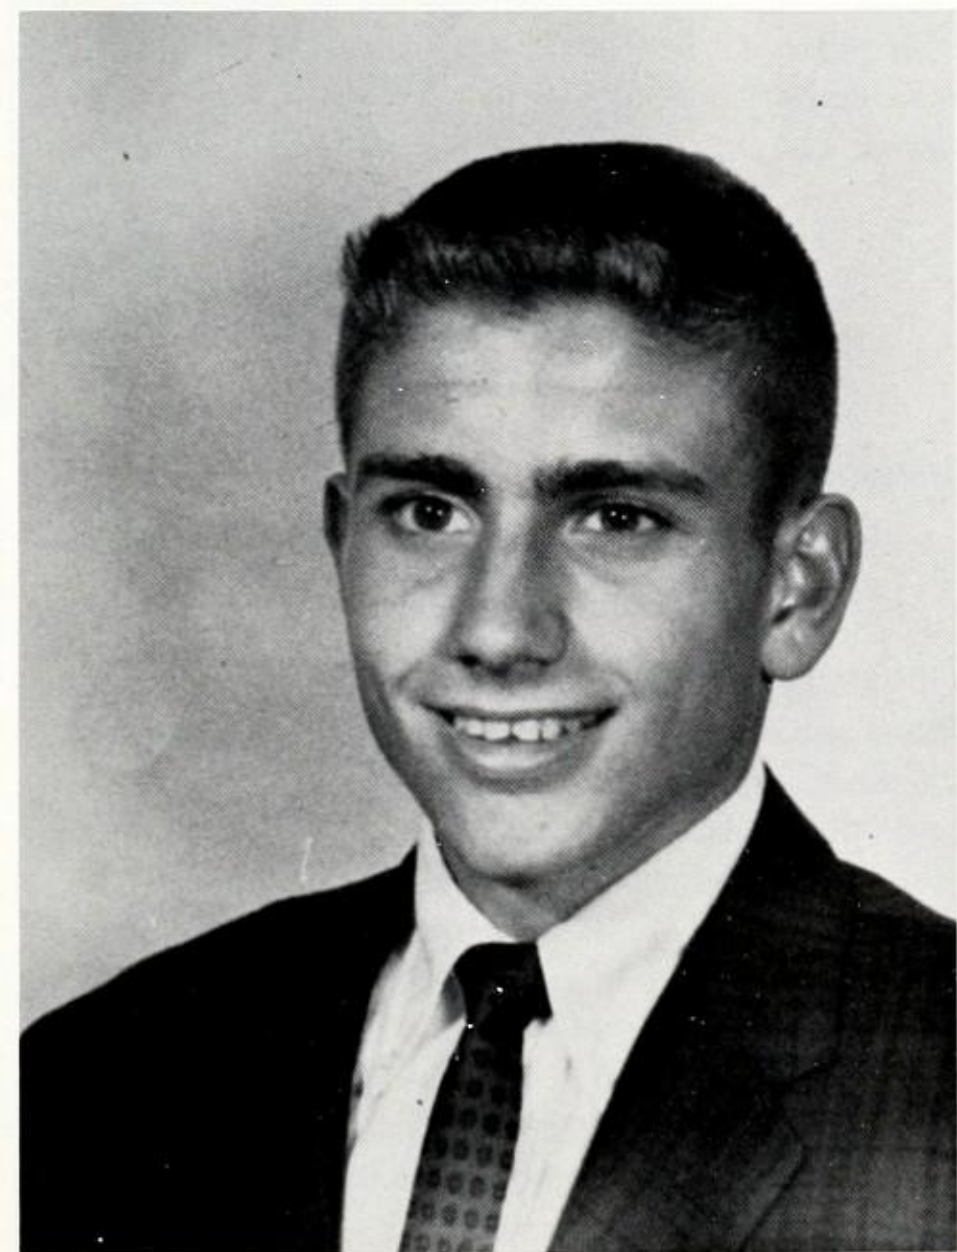

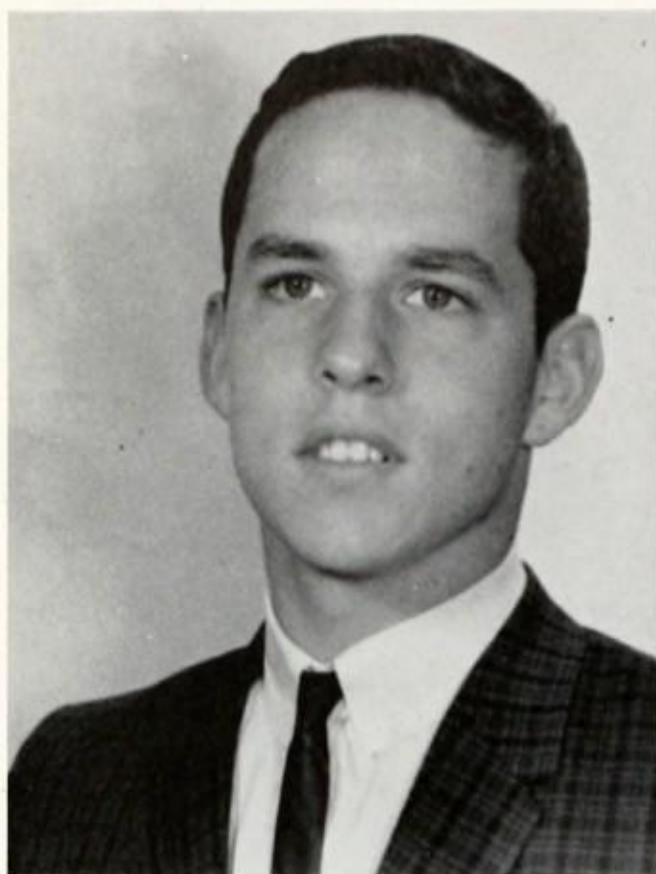

MICHAEL LAIRD HORST

*Rocks have been shaken from their solid base;
But what shall move a firm and dauntless mind?*

—Joanna Baillie

Mike, this year's Senior class vice-president, in his three years at Prep has acquired Cum Laude and a scholastic letter in Algebra II. He is a member of the Letterman's Club, having lettered in football and basketball, and he has also been sports editor of both the LOG and the Highlander. His hobbies include a variety of sports. After graduation Mike plans to study at Dartmouth for a degree in Business Administration.

ROGER NEVIN BAUMGARTEN

*A little nonsense, now and then,
Is relished by the wisest men.*

—Anonymous

A veteran of six years at Prep, Baumas is one of our outstanding athletes. Besides playing basketball, baseball and golf, for which he received a trophy at the Father and Son Golf Tournament, Roger has lettered in varsity football. He is headed for the University of California at Santa Barbara, planning to make medicine his profession. In his spare time he likes to make money, which he spends on dating and his car.

DUNCAN KENDRICK BLAIR

A horse! A horse! My kingdom for a horse!

—Shakespeare

Having completed six years at Prep, Rex now plans to study liberal arts at either Rice or Stanford. He is a member of Cum Laude and has been copy editor for both the Highlander and the LOG. Since horses and guns are his chief hobbies, his favorite sports are riding and hunting on his ranch near Hemet. His weekends are spent at horse shows or at the Ice House. His questioning mind and pointed pen will be remembered by all.

WILLIAM LEE CANEPA

Hope is such a bait, it covers any hook.

—Jonson

Bill has been with us at Flintridge for five years. He has earned Cum Laude and has been on the LOG staff. He has lettered in B football and was a member of the baseball team. Bill is undecided about what field to major in, but is considering Princeton as a college. Much of his time is spent at the beach, where he seeks both surf and dates.

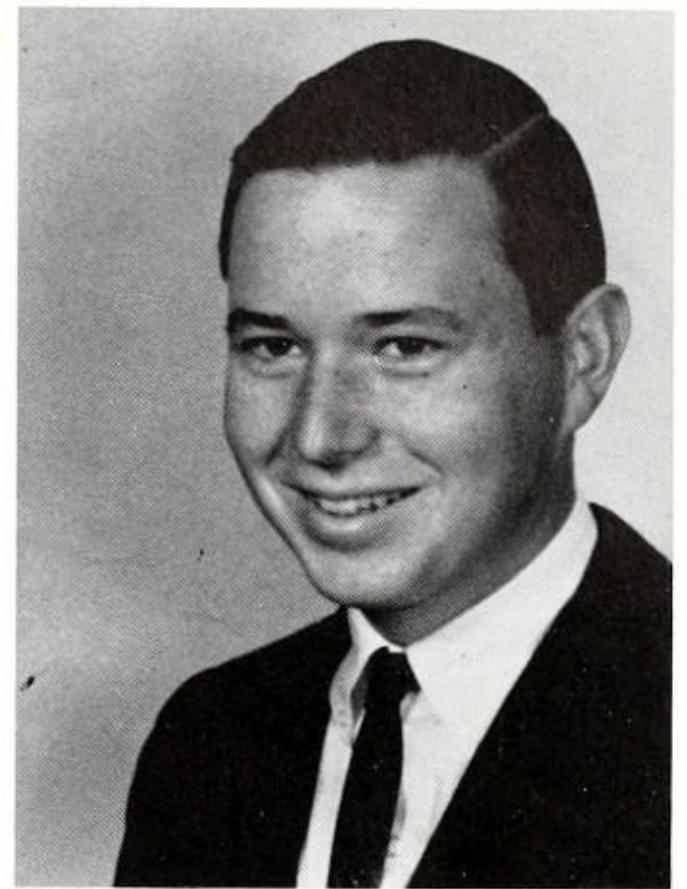

DOUGLAS DARL ERBES

*Lands mortgag'd may return, and more esteem'd;
But honesty once paun'd, is ne'er redeem'd.*

—Middleton

Doug's career at Flintridge has extended over the past three years. Moo has distinguished himself as one of the class' great outdoorsmen, and as a member of the LOG staff. His hobbies include hunting, fishing, and the wide open spaces. Guns and tropical fish also fall quite naturally into his realm of pastimes. Doug hopes to enroll at an agricultural school in order to prepare himself for either cattle ranching or a career in the Forestry Service.

KENNETH DANIEL FORD

The night shows stars and women in a better light.

—Byron

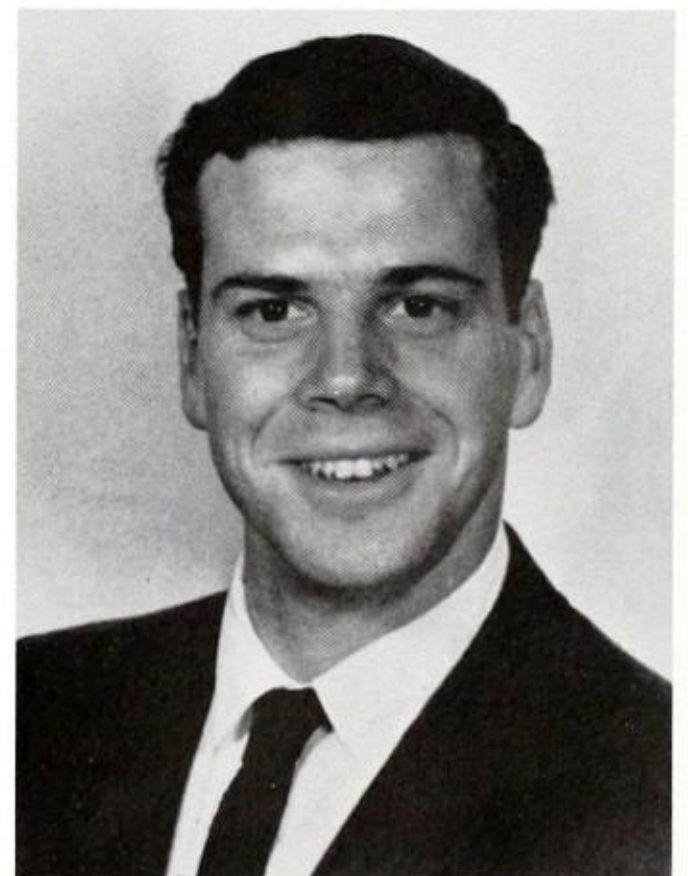

Ken has been an integral part of the football team in the three years he has been at Flintridge. He hopes to go to U.C.L.A. and study medicine after graduation. Ken is a member of the LOG staff this year. His hobby is the girl next door, and his favorite pastime is going to U.C.L.A. A red T-Bird with a leaky roof has become his symbol.

JOHN DUNCAN FRANTZ

If money go before, all ways do lie open.

—Shakespeare

John has been at Prep for a grueling period of eight years, and in that time he has received such awards as Cum Laude and C.S.F. In his last two years he has devoted much of his time to the jobs of Commissioner of Finance in his junior year and Commissioner General in his senior year. He devotes most of his spare time to water skiing, sailing, and, of course, dating; but next year at Santa Barbara will require all his time, where he will major in civil engineering. Flintridge is proud of the fact that John's ability and devotion to swimming were recognized nationally when he received an All-American Award.

RICHARD MCGHEE HOLDER II

*Wise men ne'er sit and wait their bliss,
But cheerly seek how to redress their harms.*

—Shakespeare

Rick has been at Flintridge for seven years, a feat which deserves recognition. He has done work on the LOG and Highlander staffs and has been a faithful member of the Letterman's Club. His inspiration as a manager has been instrumental to the success of the football and baseball teams, and his playing efforts have won him a letter in tennis. Rick has made the choice of medicine for his life's work and will be taking pre-med courses at the University of Southern California. His favorite pastime is going down to the beach in his green Lincoln.

ALAN HALL JOBE

It is good to lengthen to the last a sunny mood.

—James Russell Lowell

Al has been class secretary in both his junior and senior years. In his eight years at Flintridge he has earned C.S.F. five semesters and life membership in Cum Laude. He has worked hard as Class Editor of the LOG and as a member of the Highlander staff. Al has played both varsity basketball and baseball, and spends his vacations in Mexico, where he enjoys skin-diving, water-skiing, and hunting. Next year he plans to study natural science at either Stanford or University of California at Berkeley.

RICHARD IRA KERSTEN

*He learn'd the arts of riding, fencing, gunnery,
And how to scale a fortress or — nunnery.*

—Byron

Rogi has been elected class treasurer for the last six years and also is secretary of the Letterman's Club. In his seven years at Prep, he has lettered in football, baseball, and swimming. For the last two years he has been defensive captain of the football team and All-League in football. Rich spends his spare time surfing, playing cards, and dating. He would like to study civil engineering at either Oregon or Northwestern.

CHARLES WILLIAM KRAUSE

*The mind doth shape itself to its own wants,
And can bear all things.*

—Baillie

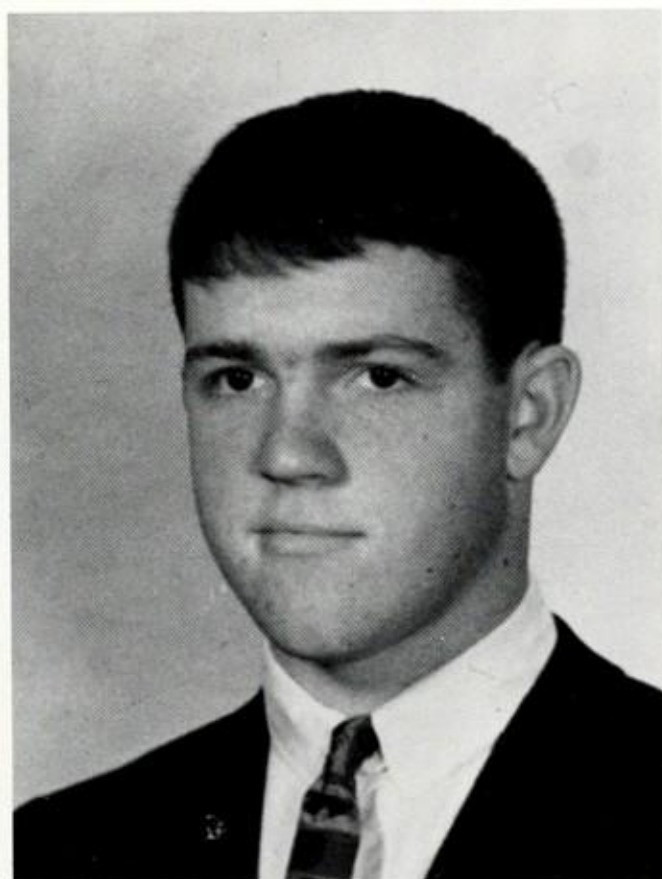

Charlie has been at Flintridge for two years on an alumni scholarship, and has proven his ability by receiving C.S.F., Cum Laude, and the Rensselaer Medal. He plans to attend California at Berkeley and major in chemistry, physics, or international relations. He was on the Highlander Staff and is the assistant editor of the LOG. Charlie lettered in A football and also enjoys swimming and boating.

WILLIAM EARL NATION

*Give him all kindness:
I'd rather have such men my friends, than enemies.*
—Shakespeare

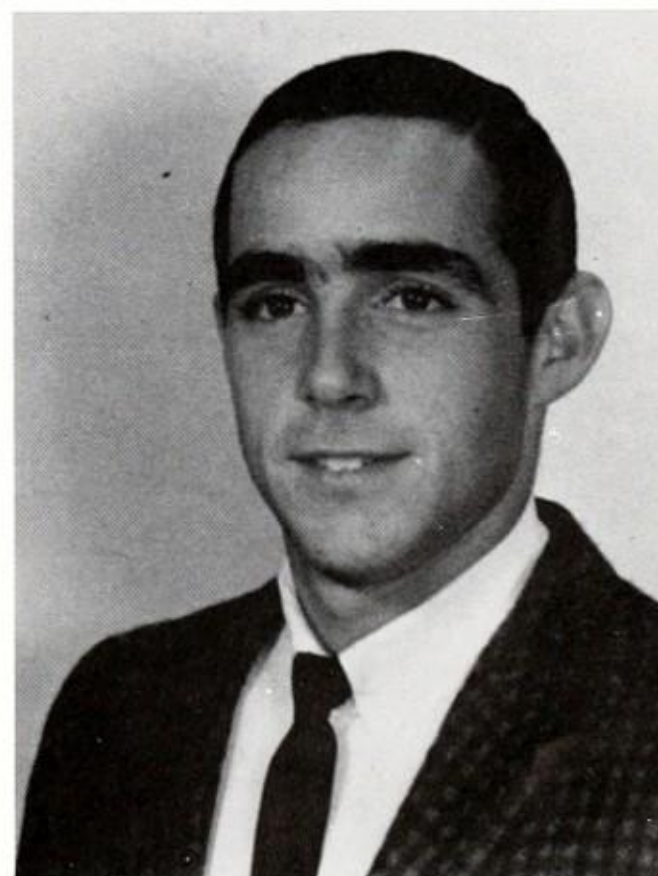

A veteran of seven years at Flintridge, Bill has maintained his academic standards while also participating in various extracurricular activities which include hunting, dating and working on his Ford. He is also a fine volleyball player and has competed in a tournament in Salt Lake City. Bill will do well at Redlands, the college he hopes to attend next year.

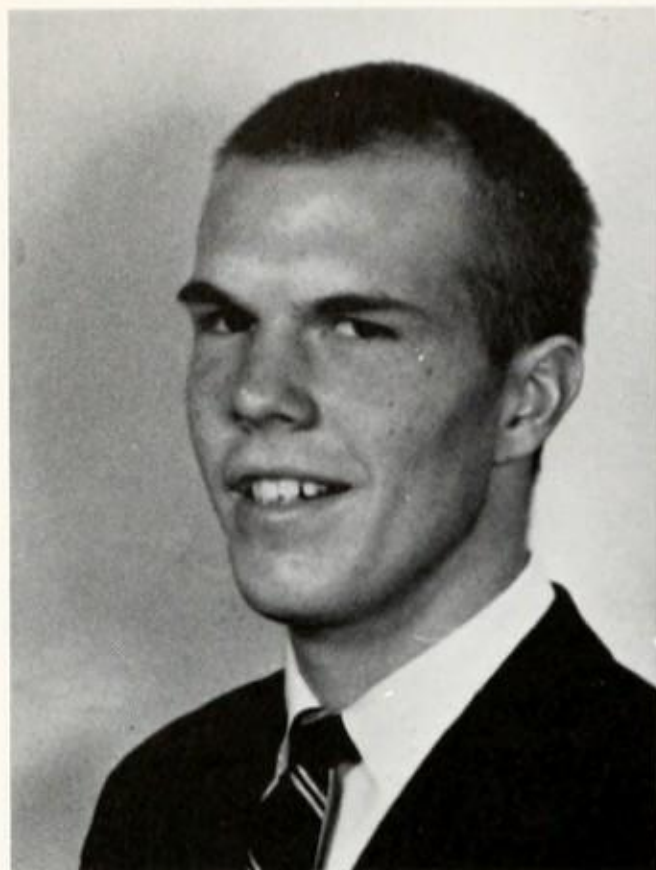

MICHAEL SHANE O'REILLY

God made all pleasures innocent.
—Norton

Shane has attended Flintridge for nine years and is seeking a career in the Air Force. He hopes to attend the Air Force Academy or the University of California at Santa Barbara next year. He was secretary of the Letterman's Club last year and is vice-president this year. Besides lettering three years in swimming and basketball, Mike has earned All-League in football, and this year he supported the football team in the vital capacity of manager. Skin diving and playing the piano are two of his hobbies. He also enjoys dating, while his talent on the banjo has been a source of enjoyment for everyone.

KENNETH MONTELLE PAYNE III

Pain is no longer pain when it is past.

—Preston

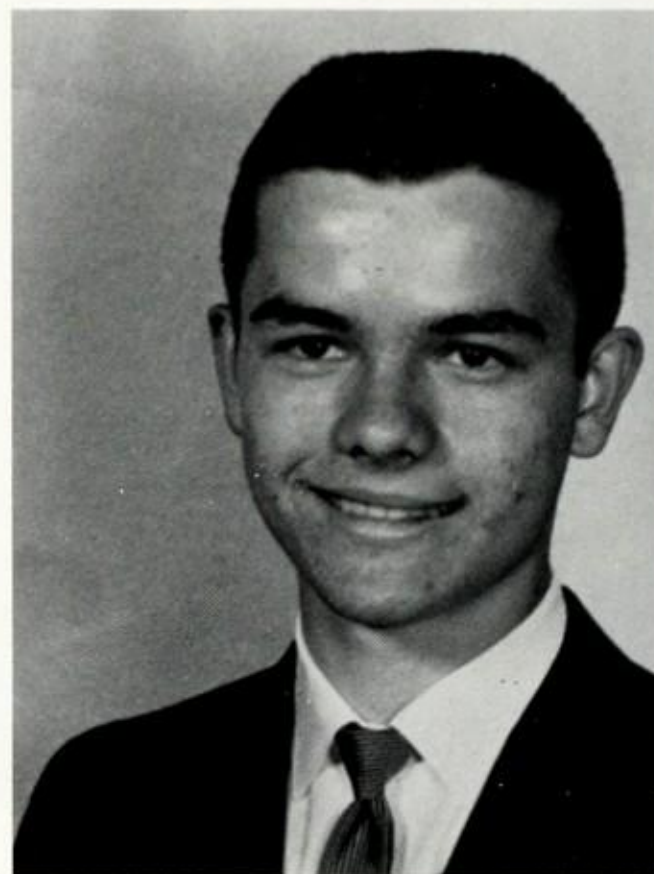

Ken has been at Prep for six years. He has worked on the Highlander and LOG staffs. Ken has also lettered in tennis, and his future hopes are set upon studying business merchandising at the University of California at Santa Barbara. His spare time is spent working on his hot rod and occasionally water skiing.

ROBERT EDWIN RUBENDALL

*Patience is a plant
That grows not in all gardens.*

—Longfellow

Rube has attended Prep for eight years; during this time he has obtained Cum Laude three times. This year he joined the ranks of the LOG staff. He has plans to study industrial engineering at either Stanford or U.C.L.A.; and with his quiet and studious manner, he will probably reach his goal. For relaxation Bob enjoys basketball, volleyball, hiking, and doing extra work in Physics.

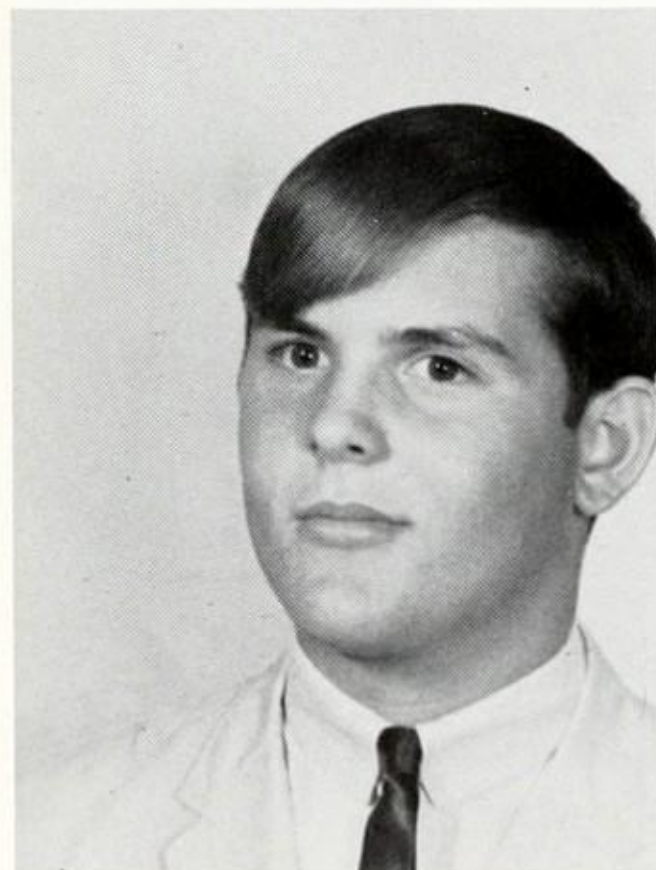

GILBERT TENNANT SEWALL

*And if you don't agree with me,
to hell, my love, with you.*

—Dorothy Parker

Gil was editor of last year's very successful Highlander, which was both distinctive and interesting. Gil has been at Prep for the last six years and is planning to attend either Swarthmore or Occidental next year; after college he hopes to become a surgeon. He won first place in the Essay Contest last year with a short story entitled the "Shores of Time." His hobbies are water skiing and raising hunting dogs.

RICHARD CLARE SMALLCOMB

Strength of mind is exercise, not rest.

—Pope

Rick has been the business manager of the LOG this year. He enjoys ham radio and photography. Most of his spare time is spent experimenting with electronic equipment or driving his blue-monster Jeep. Rick plans to attend Stanford and study the field of electronic engineering. He has received a life membership in Cum Laude, an accomplishment which is only a preview of the excellence he should attain in college.

MICHAEL GERALD SMOOKE

*Virtues alone outbuild the Pyramids:
Her monuments shall last, when Egypts fall.*

—Young

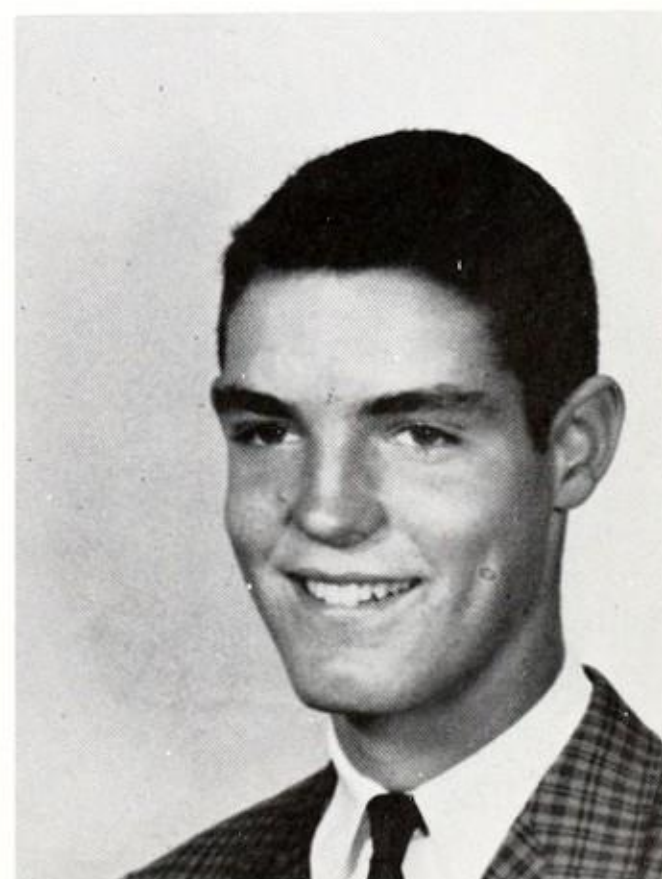

In his six years at Flintridge Mike has earned a life membership in both C.S.F. and Cum Laude and has won the Faculty Award for American Literature and the Harvard Book Award. He is Commissioner of Publications and consequently he is editor of the LOG. Mike was the assistant editor of the Highlander and editor of photography on the LOG in his junior year. He hopes to attend the University of California at Berkeley. In his spare time he enjoys skiing and photography.

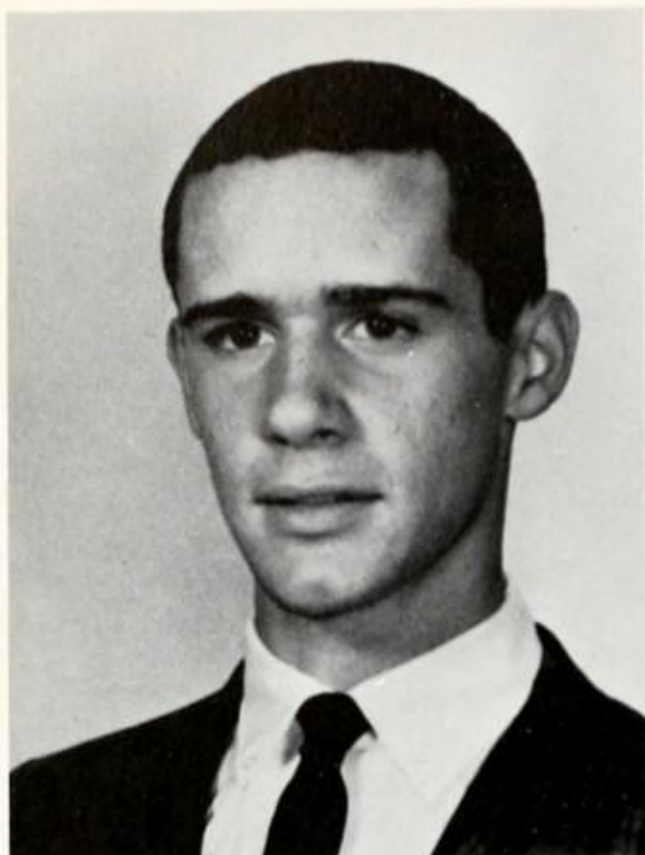

TRUDE CARL TAYLOR, JR.

*Virtue in distress, and vice in triumph,
Make atheists of mankind.*

—Dryden

Jake is our Commissioner of Academics this year. He has earned a life membership in both C.S.F. and Cum Laude and is aiming towards Cornell University for a career in engineering. He has been at Prep for six years and is a member of the LOG staff this year. Jake has lettered in both basketball and football, but also enjoys playing tennis. Surfing, skin diving, and water skiing are his favorite outside activities. His red Jeep is well known in the parking lot and is usually seen scooting down Foothill.

STANLEY THOMAS WILSON

Among the most mighty of men in his measure.

—The Pearl Poet

Although he has been at Prep for only two years, Stan is a vital part of the LOG this year, acting as the art and layout editor. He was also on the Highlander staff last year. Still uncertain about which college he will attend, he wants to go into the field of market advertising. The trampoline, surfing, and drawing are his favorite hobbies. His spare time is usually taken up by parties. Stan is well-known to his classmates for his artistic ability.

ROBERT CARY WOOD, JR.

Joy, Temperance, and Repose, Slam the door on the doctor's nose.

—Longfellow

Bob is an oldtimer who has been at Flintridge for the past eight years. He was class president in his sophomore year and has represented his class well by placing in the spelling bees throughout the years. This year he is a member of the LOG staff; academically, he has earned Cum Laude. Besides playing basketball and baseball, Bob has done a fine job of keeping school spirit up with his cheer-leading at sports events. His choice of colleges is either Duke, or Stanford, but he is undecided about his future career. Bob can usually be found in the Senior Room spending much of his time perfecting his talent on the guitar, to the pleasure of his classmates.

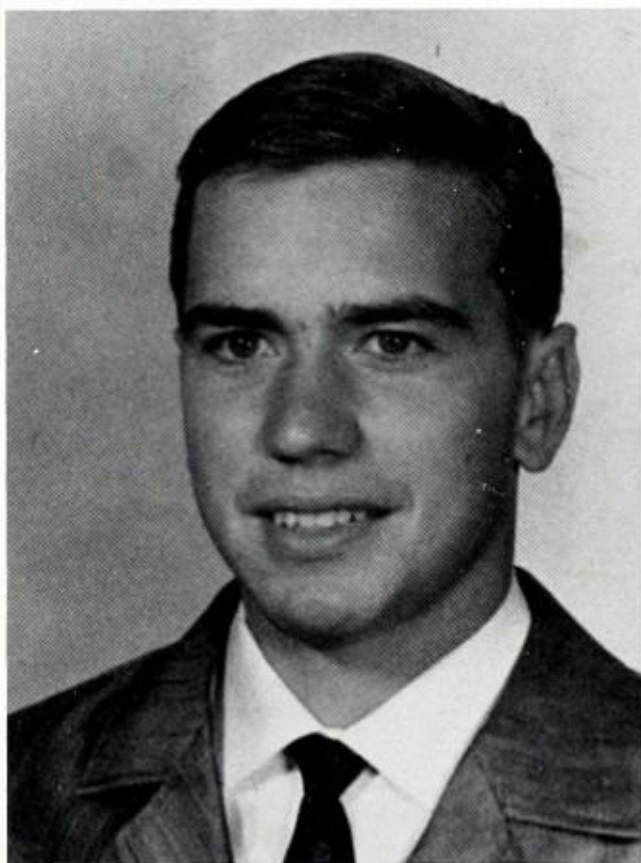

MR. F. A. DIAZGRANADOS

Thou wert my guide, philosopher, and friend.

—Pope

The Class of 1963 could not hold its position as one of the most respected Senior classes in the history of Flintridge had it not been for the leadership of Mr. DiazGranados, class advisor for the past two years. Largely through his efforts such institutions as the Junior and Senior lawns, Senior library stack privileges, and the Senior Room have been established during the last two years. Besides the tangible influences in the lives of the Seniors, Mr. D. has provided the inspiration and guidance necessary for college preparation.

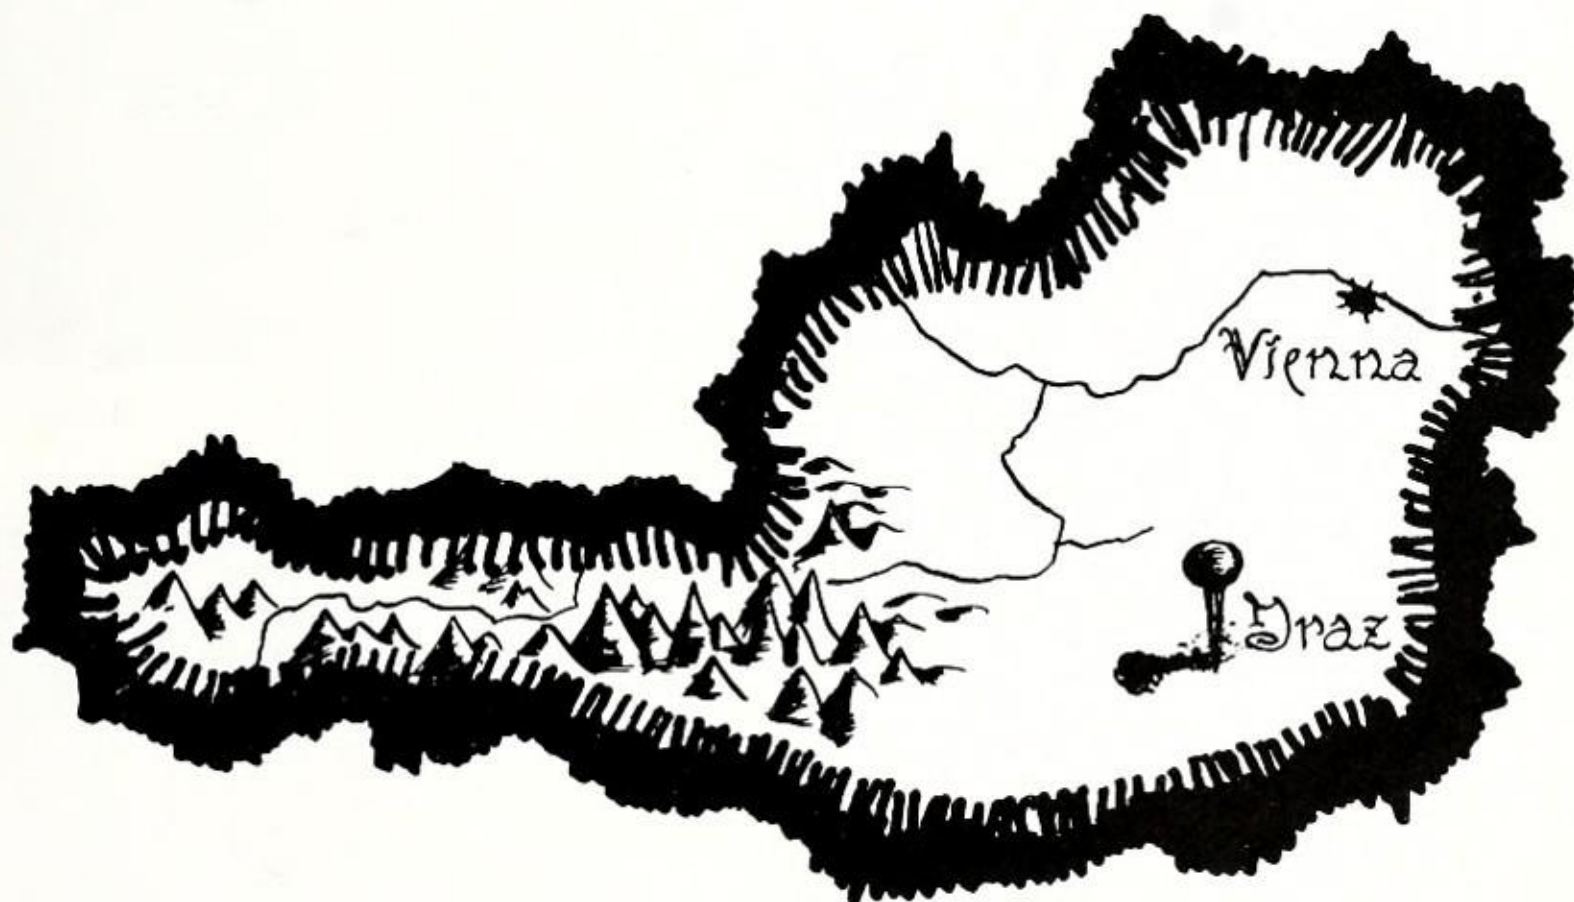

PETER LOHBERGER

*Good nature and good sense must ever join:
To err is human: to forgive, Divine.*

Pope: An Essay on Criticism

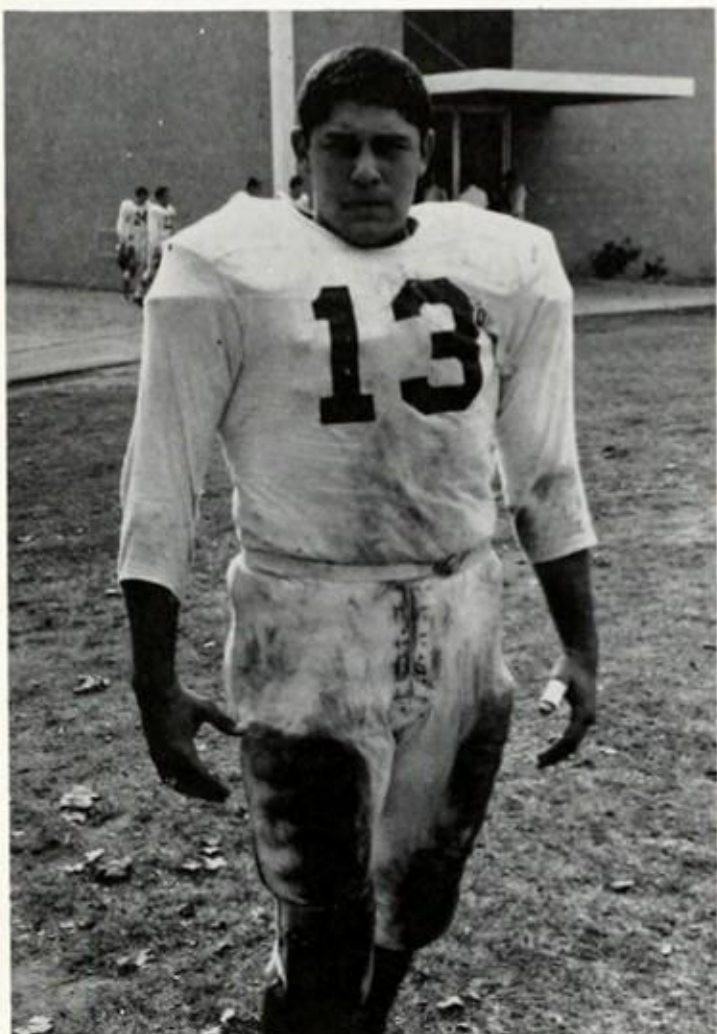

Flintridge was fortunate this year to have an Exchange Student from Austria. Besides being a tremendous asset to the Senior Class, Peter Lohberger proved himself to be an outstanding personality as well as a good student. We hope that he has enjoyed his stay with us as much as we have enjoyed having him.

All right Erbes, you've had your bite.

You play it your way, I'll play it mine.

Look what Maiden Form can do for you.

All right, Krabbe, come on out.

Are you sure this is the way Diaz did it?

It's a reflex.

It's that extra ounce that counts.

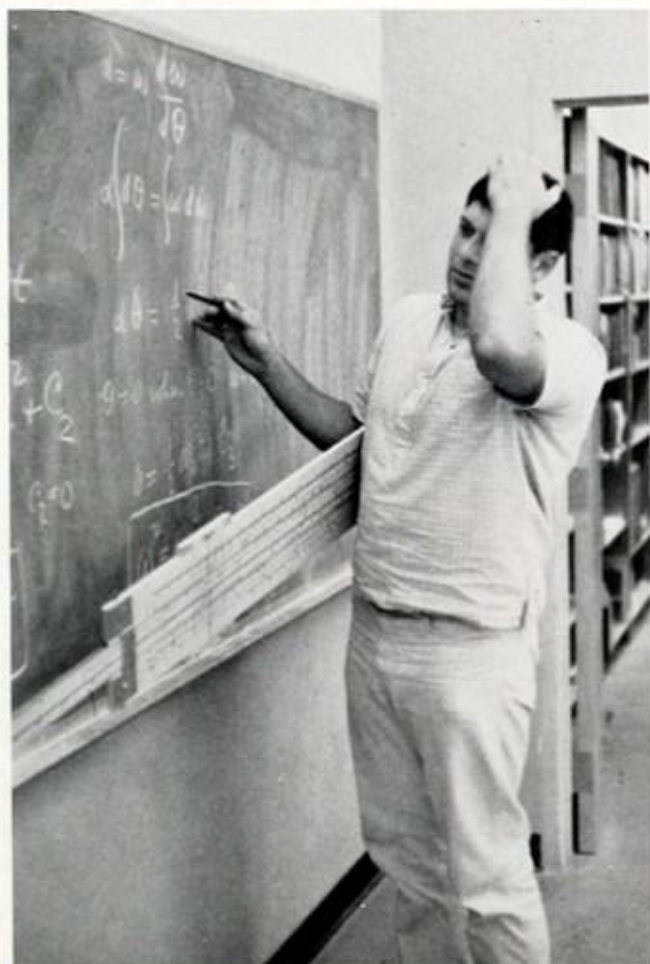

It's no one you know.

At home they let me use crayolas.

I'll do anything to get out of class.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council, one of the most vigorous of student institutions, is composed of five officers. These officers are the Commissioner General and the Commissioners of Academics, Athletics, Finance, and Publications. This year the council consists of three Seniors and two juniors. Their common duty is to act as a student court to keep the student body in line.

Also, each officer has his own particular duties. John Frantz coordinates the activities of the rest of the Council. Jake Taylor acts as Vice-President of the student body and handles the demerit system. John McEntyre is in charge of all athletic events, both intramural and varsity. Jeff Halverson handles the finances and arranges all special events, such as dances. Mike Smooke edits the LOG and has nominal charge of the other school publications.

Let Smooke do the worrying.

With Mike Smooke as editor, this year's annual is stressing a new format and organization. The staff, with its three department heads, Steve Fisher, Al Jobe and Mike Horst, has been working very hard throughout the year to produce a superior LOG. Stan Wilson has done the graphs and art work this year, and Charles Krause and Richard Smallcomb have helped in the business end of producing the LOG. With Mr. Noia as advisor and a good staff, this year's annual will provide a fine record of the school year.

Cook, the dissenter.

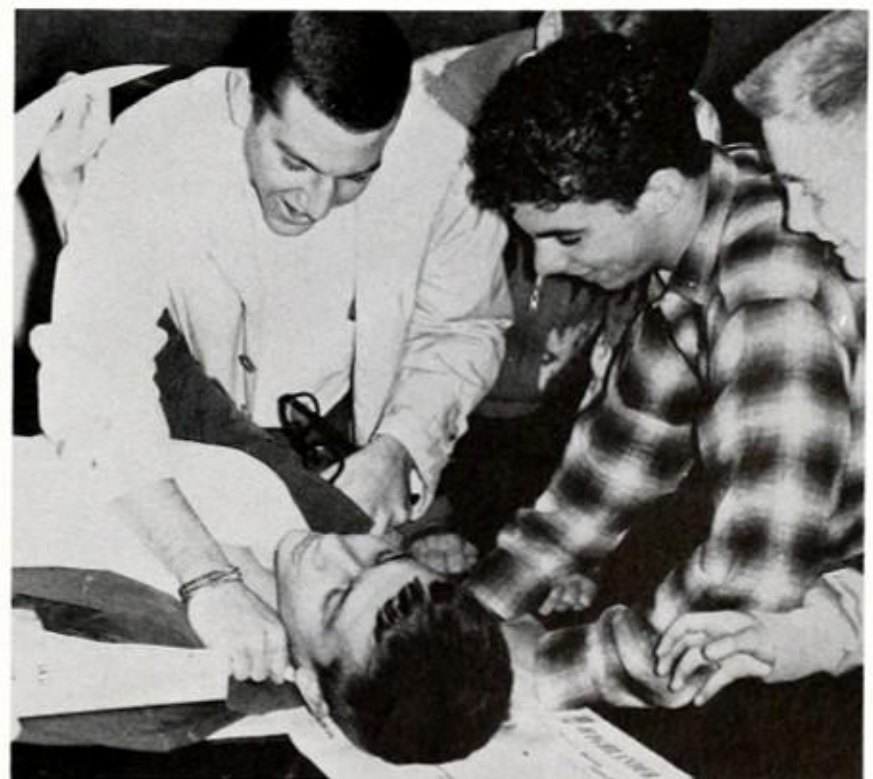

Boy, this sure does beat our paper.

Under the able leadership of Paul Harman, editor, and Mr. Denniston, advisor, this year's Highlander has undergone a series of vast improvements. The staff's main objective was to revise the Highlander. A new format and improved reporting helped make this year's Highlander one of the greatest ever. Such editorial additions as "Socrates, the Spyder" and "Alumnus of the Month," together with a broader coverage on school activities, have attracted the interest of the student body and faculty.

The greatest achievement was the addition of the sophomore class to the staff, which doubles the previous number of members. It is the hope of all concerned that this previous experience will make next year's Highlander an even greater success.

Harman! I can't stand another moment of it!

According to Mr. Neupauer, you start cutting right here.

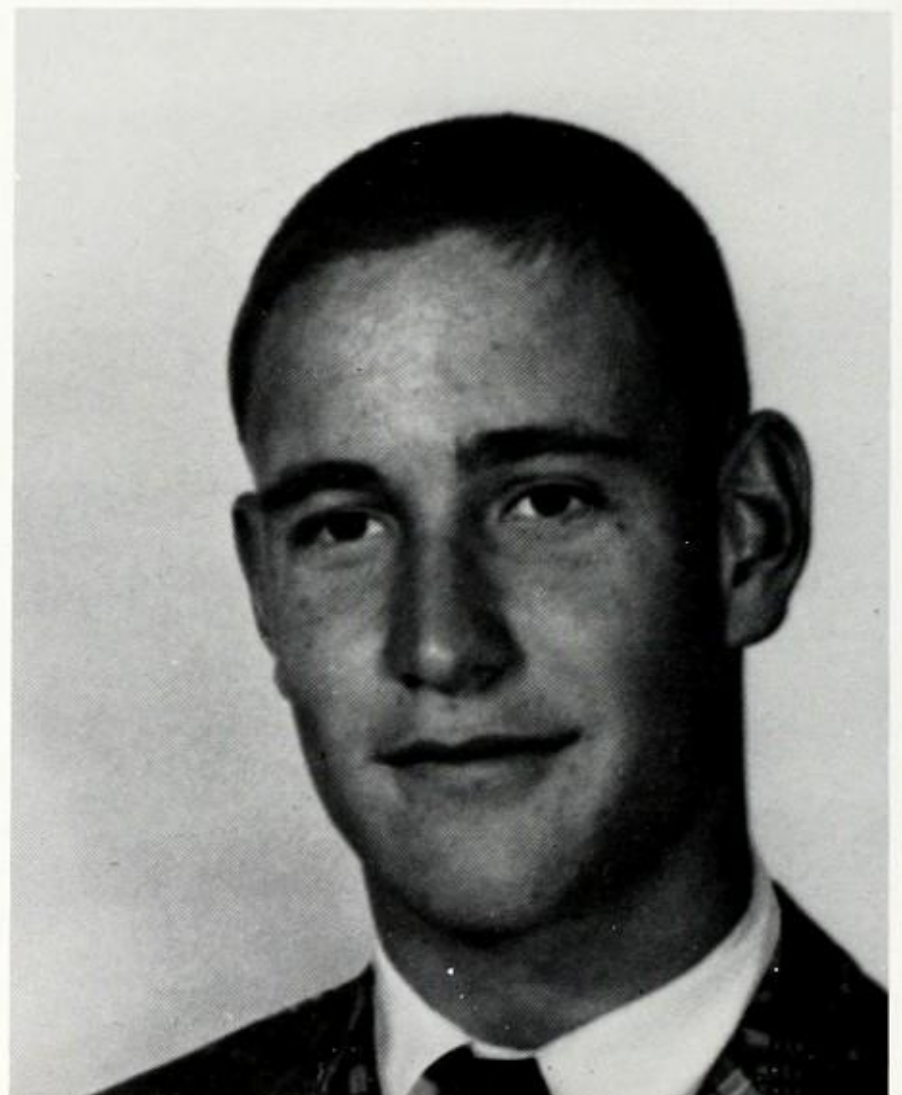

SPORTSMANSHIP

Each year the student body and faculty of Flintridge elects one person who best typifies the Flintridge spirit. He must be a leader, well-liked by his fellow students, and of general all-around character. This year the voters have made a wise decision in naming John McEntyre to this great honor.

AWARDS

ALL-AROUND ATHLETE

The All-Around Athlete award is bestowed each year upon the boy who has the most points. Ten points are awarded for "A" sports, eight points are given for "B" sports, and five points are given for minor sports such as tennis and golf. Special recognition is given for all-league and all C.I.F. honors. This year the athletic department has presented the award to Stephen Crane Manildi.

1962 ESSAY CONTEST

FIRST, Sewall; THIRD, Robinson; SECOND, Smallcomb.

The National Merit recognition is based on a nationally competitive test that is given in the junior year. The Spelling Bee and Essay Contest are held for the entire high school and count for class competition. The subject of the essay was "The Shores of Time," and the writing could be either creative or an essay.

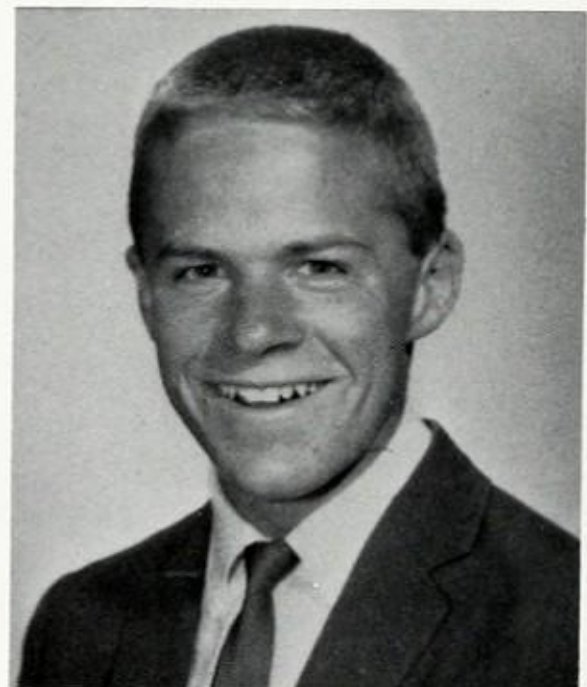

The awards that are presented on these pages are a demonstration of the scholastic achievements of the students at Flintridge. Cum Laude is awarded to people who have received no grade less than a B in any of their courses for the first semester. C.S.F. is presented to people who receive at least ten points; three points are given for A's, and one point for B's. Two points can also be received for extracurricular activities. The other awards are in special categories; many of them were presented at graduation last year. In initiating a new policy this year, the LOG wishes to extend its congratulations to the individuals who have worked so hard to achieve their respective awards.

The Flintridge Letterman's Club, since its incorporation four years ago, has again taken its place in campus life. Now the club is made up of varsity lettermen, Senior "B's", and students who have earned two "B" letters. The purpose of the club is to boost school spirit and encourage participation in school events. The club has made many contributions to the school, such as providing ushers at school events and athletic functions, holding pep rallies, cheerleading, and sponsoring several dances.

The officers for this year, along with Mr. Bradbury as advisor, were Steve Fisher, president; Mike O'Reilly, vice-president; and Richard Kersten, secretary. Under their leadership, the Letterman's Club has added much to school life, and we hope that it will continue to do so in the coming years.

What leadership.

What organization.

What results!

OFFICE PARTIES

Every class in the high school puts on a dance for the school each year. The sophomores provided the first "office party" with their dance "Polynesian Paradise." The Seniors followed with their traditional Christmas Dance. The spring dance and the Junior-Senior Prom close out the "office parties" for this year.

SOPHOMORE DANCE

The sophomores put on a fine fall dance this year. The theme of this year's first dance was "Polynesian Paradise," and the highlight of the decorations was a beautiful backdrop. An exceptional band provided the music for this successful sophomore dance.

The traditional hanging.

This is Polynesia?

CHRISTMAS DANCE

The highlight dance each year is traditionally presented by the Senior class at Christmas. This year's dance was no exception. The decorations were superb, centering around a picture window and an eighteen-foot white Christmas tree. "The Valiants" provided a different type of music than is customarily offered at school dances. Congratulations to the Seniors for one of the best dances ever.

The teachers didn't stomp.

He came stag.

MERELY SOCIAL

Other social activities take place at Flintridge throughout the year besides the four annual class dances. Sports events and private parties help fill out the season. The football players attended parties at the Manildi's and Slocum's residences, for example. This year the Letterman's Club Play is planned, and other activities of this type make for a busy year.

Chas., what have you been filching?

Profound concentration — checking out the surfers.

CAMPUS

AND

The Prep campus is on two levels, which naturally separate the campus into two parts. Sports and academics are thus physically separated with the academic facilities overlooking the athletic field and the new gym. Future years will see a new swimming pool on the lower level.

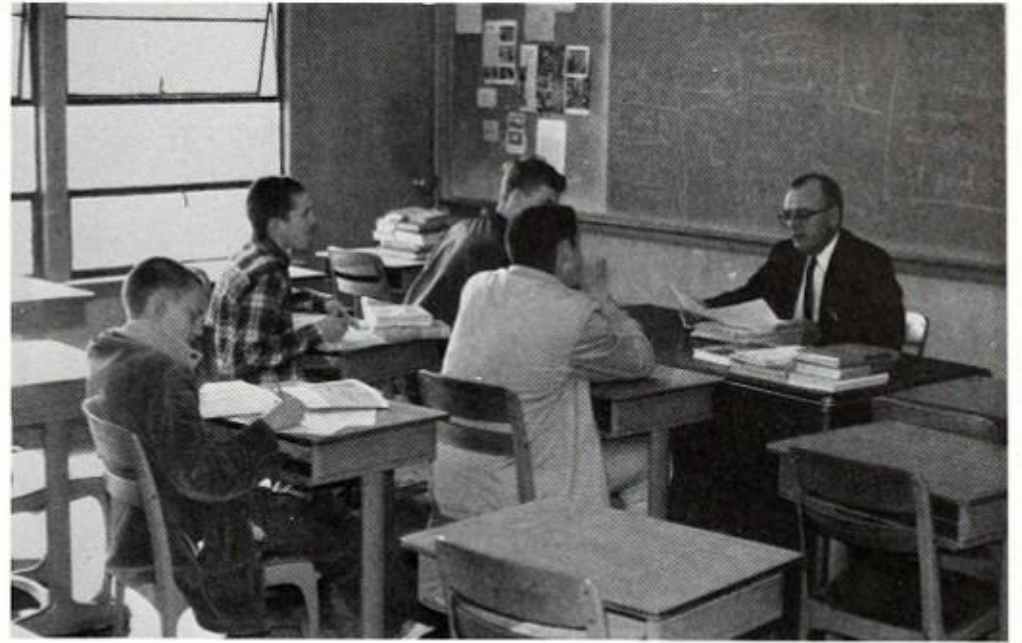

With the opening of the new building early in 1962, Prep gained a new study-hall, library, and laboratory. Flintridge now has two well-equipped laboratories to be used for biology, chemistry and physics. The library contains fourteen thousand volumes arranged in both open and closed stacks.

Tall trees, lawn-flanked walks, and an outdoor lunch area help provide the student with fresh air and sunshine. The campus, located against the Sierra Madre foothills, enjoys many more smogless days and blue skies than most other parts of Southern California. The mountain setting gave birth to the school nickname — the Highlanders.

CURRICULUM

Possibly the most important asset of Flintridge is its small classrooms. Individual instruction and attention plus a closer student-teacher relationship rank Flintridge as one of the top secondary schools in the nation. Emphasis is placed on college preparation and high academic standards.

Prep has a fine library-study hall designed to help the student in his work and to cultivate extracurricular interests. Books in French, Latin, and Spanish are available as well as a wide range of English books — from semantics to the Elizabethan stage. These books introduce the student to resources and techniques of research as well as to the world of literature.

Advance placement courses in physics and calculus are the goal of every Prep mathematics major, while U.S. Government and other history courses are offered for the liberal arts major. Four years of language are also available, and four years of English are compulsory in the high school. Sports play an important part in Prep life as the student is given both physical and mental exercises. From golf to football, from physics to English, Prep has a well-rounded curriculum.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

This year's Varsity football team ranks as one of the top teams in Flintridge history, as they captured the Prep League title with a six win and no loss record. The devastating offense, which averaged 48 points per game, was led by All-League quarterback Steve Manildi and halfbacks Jack Guernsey and Mike Gunn. Captain Richard Kersten and Ken Ford, both All-Leaguers, led a well-balanced defense which shut-out five of six opponents. Team depth was another key factor this year, for the starting teams were backed by strong reserve units. The prospect for next year looks just as good, as the entire offense returns, while defensive losses can be capably filled.

"B" FOOTBALL

"B" football in the Prep League this year was marked by the rise of two teams as gridiron powers. Although losing to both these strong teams, the Flintridge "B's" went on to shut-out the rest of their opponents. The offense, which scored a total of 193 points in only five games, was led by Captain Mike Horst at quarterback and halfback Bill Canepa, while John DeGroot headed the defense.

Inexperience played a key role this year in the team's record. Nevertheless, the "B's" are to be congratulated for their fine performance.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

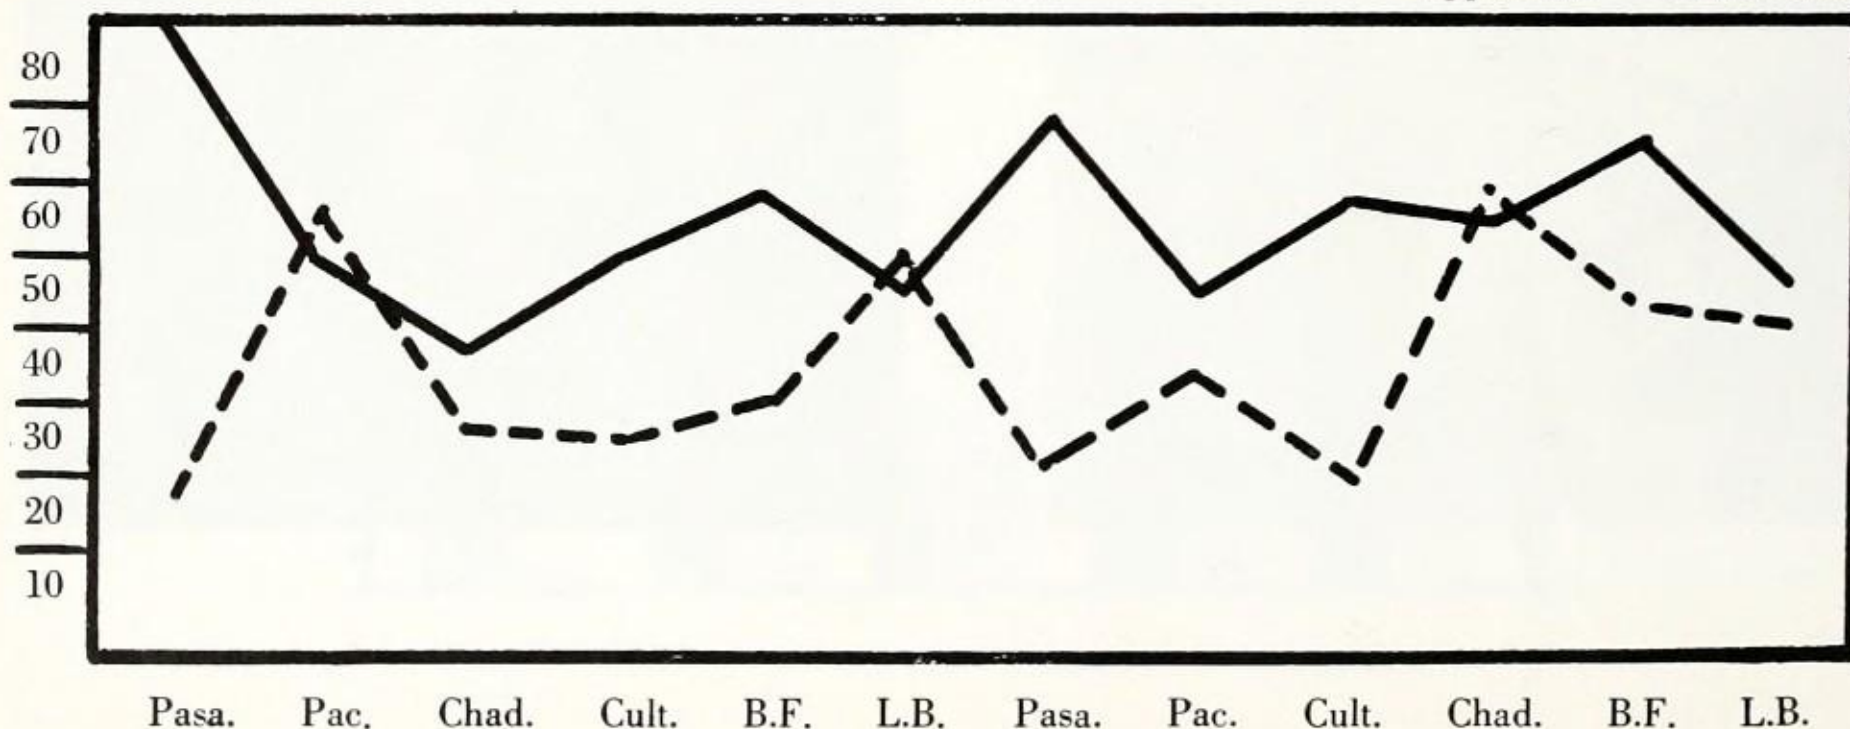

The 1963 edition of the Flintridge basketball team enjoyed a prosperous season, finishing as one of the eight best Class A teams in the Southern part of the state. Coach Tom Bradbury's cagers nailed down second place in Prep League play with a 9-3 record, thus gaining a position in the post-season C.I.F. tournament.

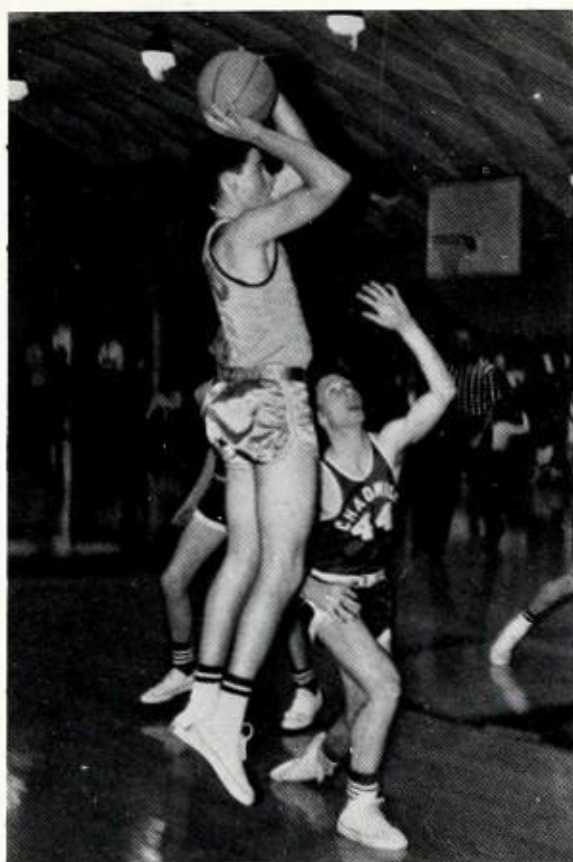

The team was led this year by the consistent outside shooting of junior forward Steve Fritzen and the backboard work of Senior center Jake Taylor. The first five was rounded out by junior guards Steve Manildi and Mike Gunn, and sophomore forward Ken Stutz. With so many players returning next year, the prospects look very good for a championship in 1964.

"B" BASKETBALL

This year's "B" basketball team ranked as one of the best in Flintridge history as they captured the Prep League Championship for the fifth consecutive year with a 12-0 record. With the pre-season win over Harvard and Pasadena Academy's two forfeits of league games, Coach Jim Wood's team stretched the Prep "B's" winning streak to an amazing 55 straight victories. The fast-breaking offense and pressing zone defense, which accounted for victory after victory, were led by Captain Mike Horst and Jack Guernsey, both forwards, and center John DeGroot, all of whom averaged better than ten points per game. Guards Drew Skowrup and Craig Farmer rounded out the first unit. The "B's" are to be congratulated for their excellent year.

SWIMMING

Although once a swimming power, the Flintridge teams of the past several years have not done exceptionally well. Last year Coach Jim Wood's swimmers did fairly well, finishing with a 2-3 record and setting a new school record in the free-style relay.

This year with the return of five top swimmers, including John Frantz and Bob Nathason, and some fine newcomers, the swimming picture looks very good as the team has already posted a win over Montclair Prep by a 44-42 margin. With the possibility of a new outdoor pool and increased school interest there is an excellent chance that Prep will again have an outstanding swimming team.

BASEBALL

The baseball team at Flintridge has fared well in the past years. Last year a record of nine wins and three losses in league play and an over-all record of 12-4 gave Tom Bradbury's Highlanders a second place tie with Long Beach Brethren while Chadwick captured the Prep League crown.

This season the prospect of a league championship and a C.I.F. Playoff berth looks even better as eleven players from last year's squad of fourteen, including pitcher Jeff Halverson, catcher Eric Pennala, and infielders Richard Kersten and Steve Manildi, are returning. Coach Bradbury predicts that with a little work and good hitting, the Prep baseballers can look forward to another fine season.

GOLF

Although the golf team has had a rough time in past years, playing schools many times larger than Flintridge and losing every match, there was a marked increase in the number of points scored in each match and the number trying out for the team. This year there has been another increase in prospective team members, and the records show that the team has improved. After losing the first match with Burbank, 20-16, the team dropped the next two matches to Burbank and Burroughs by identical scores of 19-17. But in their next match the Prep golfers finally won, their first victory in 27 outings, by downing La Salle 19-11. The chances are very good that in the remaining matches Flintridge's golf team might add more victories to their record.

TENNIS

In the past Prep's tennis team has not met with too much success. Last year, however, the Flint-ridge team came through with a winning season, the first such achievement in many years. With the entire squad returning — including top singles players Ken Payne and Bruce Murdy — and with the acquisition of some fine new freshmen, the team seems to show signs of being even stronger than last year. There is the added incentive of some of the players going to Ojai for the big tournament held there every spring. Thus, the future looks very bright for Prep's tennis team.

Classic tennis form.

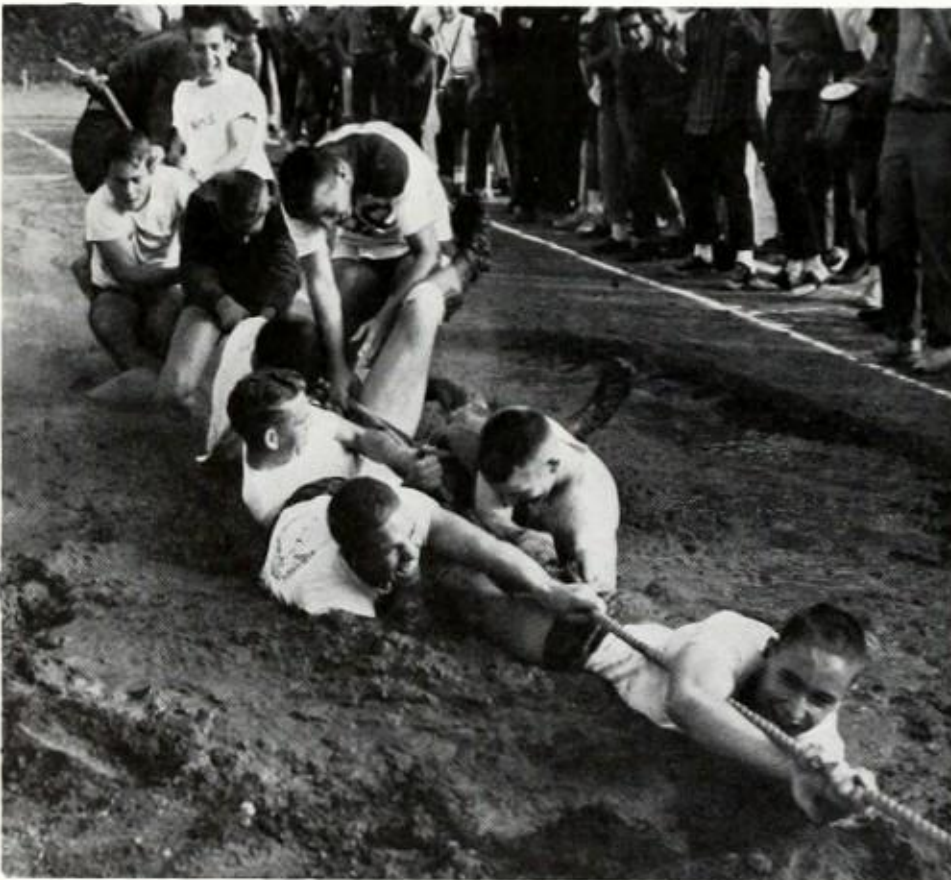

En garde!

Under the able direction of this year's Student Council, the intramural events which make up class competition were carried off quickly and smoothly with the Seniors grabbing the majority of the gold medals. The juniors made a strong bid for first place; but as the year progressed, the powerful Senior Class pulled the juniors through the mud again and again and again.

To raise spirits at the beginning of school, the arrogant juniors challenged the Seniors to a tug-a-war over a mud pit. The Seniors arrived in style in three jeeps and monogrammed shirts, while the juniors were totally disorganized. As could be expected, the highly organized Seniors quickly pulled and dragged the over-confident juniors through the pit three times.

CLASS

Barry in his rice patty.

Another great battle was fought on the football field. The game was unexpectedly won by the juniors in a hard-fought 14-13 victory over the Seniors. The juniors' final touchdown in the closing seconds of the game placed the Seniors in second place.

In academic events, the Seniors easily won grades and demerits for the first three quarters, with the juniors placing second in grades and last in demerits.

As we go to press, the Seniors are sure to be the guests of either the freshmen or the sophomores for a fine dinner. As always, the events were engaged in with a spirit of fun and good sportsmanship, and the competition did much to increase class unity.

THANK YOU

I would like to take this space to thank all those who made the '63 LOG possible through their hard work and conscientious effort. To name them all would take pages, but I would personally like to say "Thank you" to:

Mr. Noia, LOG Advisor, for his help and guidance;

Charlie Krause, for his excellent work as Assistant Editor;

Steve Fisher, our hard working idea man;

Al Jobe, for his well-handled section;

Mike Horst, who never missed a dead-line;

Stan Wilson, for his original layouts and art work;

Paul Harman, Photography Editor, and his hard working staff of shutter-bugs: Bushnell, Felnagle, Foote, Keane, and Parry;

Rick Smallcomb, Business Manager, who kept us out of the red;

Stuart Robinson, Associate Editor, for his help and interest;

Duncan Blair and Rick Holder, Copy Editors, for their work;

The whole staff for working so hard;

Drewry Photocolor, for their aid in producing photographs — on a budget;

Mr. Hubbell, of Taylor Publishing Company, for his advice and help in printing this book;

Thank you all,
